Sec. 559 authority

On January 17, 2014, section 559 of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2014, P.L. 113-76 (Section 559), became law, authorizing U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and the U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) to accept donations of real property, personal property (including monetary donations) and non-personal services from private sector and Government entities. Subparagraph (t)( 4) of Section 559 requires that CBP, in consultation with GSA, establish procedures for evaluating donation proposals and make any such evaluation criteria available to the public no later than 180 days after the date of enactment of the law.

Section 2 of the Cross-Border Trade Enhancement Act of 2016, P.L. 114-279 (the “2016 Trade Enhancement Act”), amended title IV of the Homeland Security Act of 2002 to, among other things, add a new section 482, which augments CBP’s ability to implement this initiative by jointly authorizing CBP and the U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) to accept real property, personal property, monetary, and non-personal services donations from private sector and government entities (Section 482). In addition, section 4 of the 2016 Trade Enhancement Act repealed section 559 of the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2014, P.L. 113-76 (Section 559), which was the previous authority under which CBP and GSA were authorized to accept donations at ports of entry; however, it did not affect any agreement entered into, or any proposal accepted for consideration, under Section 559 on or before December 15, 2016.
